Passed the Seventeenth of February, 1648.

An Act for the Abolishing the Kingly Office in England, Ireland, and the Dominions thereunto belonging.

Whereas Charls Stuart late King of England, Ireland, and the Territories and Dominions thereunto belonging, hath by Authority derived from Parliament, been, and is hereby declared to be justly condemned, adjudged to dye, and put to death for many Treasons, Murthers, and other hainous Offences committed by him; by which Judgement he stood and is hereby Declared to be attainted of High Treason, whereby his Issue and Posterity, and all others pretending Title under him, are become incapable of the said sai[d Crowns, or of behin[g King or Queen of the said Kingdom or Dominions, or either or any of them: Be it therefore Enacted and Dedamed, and it is Enacted, O[dained and Declared by this present Parliament, and by authority thereof, That all the People of England and Ireland, and the Dominions and Territories thereunto belonging, of what degree or condition soever, are discharged of all Fealty, Honor and Allegiance which is or shall be pretended to be due unto any of the Issue and Pos[terity of the said late King, or any claiming under him; and that Ch[arls Stuart eldest son, and James called Duke of York, second son, and all other the Issue and Posterity of him the said late King, and all and every person and persons pretending Title from, by or under him, are and be disabled to hold or enjoy the said Crown of England and Ireland, and other the Dominions thereunto belonging, or any of them; or to have the Name, Title, Style or Dignity of King or Queen of England and Ireland, Prince of Wales, or any of them; or to have and enjoy the Power and Dominion of the said Kingdoms and Dominions, or any of them; or the Hono[r, Marquis, Lands, Tenements, Possitions and hereditaments belonging or appertaining to the said Crown of England and Ireland, and other the Dominions aforesaid, or to any of them; or to the Principality of Wales, Duchy of Lancaster or of Cornwall, or any or either of them, Any Law, Statute, Ordinance, Usage or Custom to the contrary hereof in any wise notwithstanding: And whereas it is and hath been found by experience, that the Office of a King to this Nation and Ireland, and to have the power threof in any single person, is unnecessary, burthenſom and dangerous to the Liberty, Safety, and Publicque Interest of the People, and that for the most part use hath been made of the Regal Power and Prerogative, to Oppreſs, Impoveriſhand Enslave the Subject; and that usually and naturally any one person in such Power, makes it his Interest to incroach upon the just Freedom and Liberty of the People, and to promote the setting up of their own Will and Power above the Laws, that so they might Enslave these Kingdoms to their own Lust: Be it therefore Enacted and Didained by this present Parliament, and by Authority of the same, That the Office of a King in this Nation shall not henceforth reside in, or be exercis’d by any one single person; and that no one person whatsoever, shall or may have, or hold the Office, Stile, Dignity, Power or Authority of King of the said Kingdoms and Dominions, or any of them, or of the Prince of Wales, Any Law, Statute, Usage or Custom to the contrary thereof in any wise notwithstanding. And it is hereby Enacted, That if any person or persons shall endeavour to attempt by force of Arms or otherwise, or be aiding, assisting, comforting or abetting, unto any person or persons that shall by any ways or means whatsoever, endeavor or attempt the reviving or setting up again of any pretended Right of the said Charls, eldest Son to the said late King, James called Duke of York, or of any other the Issue and Posterity of the said late King, or of any per-ton or persons claiming under him or them, to the said Regal Office, Stile, Dignity or Authority, or to be Prince of Wales; or the promoting of any one person whatsoever, to the Name, Stile,
Hence, Dignity, Power, Prerogative or Authority of King of England and Ireland, and Dominions aforesaid; or any of them, That then every such Offence shall be deemed and adjudged High Treason, and the Offenders therein, their Councillors, Procurers, Ayders and Abettors, being convicted of the said Offence, or any of them, shall be deemed and adjudged Treasons against the Parliament and People of England; and shall suffer, lose and forfeit, and have such like and the same Punishments, Forfeitures, Judgments and Execution, as is used in case of High Treason: And whereas by the abolition of the Kingly Office provided for in this Act, a most happy Way is made for this Nation (if God see it good) to return to its just and ancient Right, of being Governed by its own Representatives or National Meetings in Council, from time to time chosen and entrusted for that purpose by the People, It is therefore Resolved and Declared by the Commons assembled in Parliament, That they will put a period to the sitting of this present Parliament, and dissolve the same so soon as may possibly stand with the Safety of the People that hath betrufted them, and with what is absolutely necessary for the preserving and upholding the Government now settled in the Way of a Commonwealth; and that they will carefully provide for the certain chusing, meeting and sitting of the next and future Representatives, with such other Circumstances of Freedom in Choice and equality in distribution of Members to be Elected thereunto, as shall most conduce to the lasting Freedom and good of this Commonwealth: And it is hereby further Enacted and Declared, notwithstanding any thing contained tained in this Act, no person or persons of what condition and quality soever, within the Commonwealth of England and Ireland, Dominion of Wales, the Islands of Guernsey and Jersey, and Town of Berwick upon Tweed, shall be discharged from the Obedience and Subjetion which he and they owe to the Government of this Nation, as it is now Declared; but all and every of them shall in all things render and perform the same, as of right is due unto the Supreme Authority hereby declared to reside in this and the successive Representatives of the People of this Nation, and in them only.

Passed the Seventeenth of March, 1648.

An Act for Abolishing the House of Parliament.

The Commons of England assembled in Parliament, finding by too long experience,

Parliament and by the Authority of the same, That from henceforth the House of Lords in Parliament, shall be and is hereby Wholly a-ever as a House of Lords in Parliament: Neevertheless it is hereby Declared, That neither such Lords as have demeaned themselves with Honor, Courage and Fidelity to the Commonwealth,

Wealth, nor their posterities (who shall continue so) shall be excluded from the public councils of the Nation, but shall be admitted thereunto, and have their free vote in Parliament, if they shall be thereunto elected, as other persons of interest elected and qualified thereunto ought to have: And be it further ordained and enacted by the authority aforesaid, that no peer of this land (not being elected, qualified, and sitting in Parliament as aforesaid) shall claim, have, or make use of any privilege of Parliament, either in relation to his person, quality or estate, any law, usage or custom to the contrary notwithstanding.

Whereas divers Scandalous, Seditious and Libellous Pamphlets, Papers and Books are daily contrived, printed, vended and and dispersed, with officious care and industry by the Malignant party at home and abroad, for the better compassing of their wicked ends, The subversion of the Parliament and present Government, which they well know cannot with more ease be attempted, than by lies and false Suggestions, cunningly insinuated and spread amongst the People, and by malicious misrepresentation of things acted and done, to take off and divide their Affections from that Just Authority which is set over them for their good and safety, and to bring a low and mean esteem upon the persons, and a suspicion and hatred upon the course and intentions of the faithful Members of the Peoples Representative in Parliament, and of other Ministers of State, serving the Commonwealth in their several Subordinations; especially such who are most constant and conscientious in discharge of their Trust, and are therefore become the utmost object of their Wretched spleen and malice: And Whereas a great occasion of these mischiefs and scandals, and dissatisfaction of many, hath been as well the ignorance and assumed boldness of the Weekly Pamphleters, without leave or due Information, taking upon them to publish, and at pleasure to cenure the Proceedings of Parliament and Army, and other Affairs of State; as also the irregularity and licentiousness of Printing, the Art Whereof in this Commonwealth, and in all Foreign parts, hath been and ought to be restrained from too arbitrary and general an exercise: To prevent the many mischiefs ineludably following thereupon, The Parliament of England duly considering the premises, and willing to apply fit remedy herein, Do Enact and Oulain,

Provided, That so much of
of the said Ordinance as regards the imposition of penalties upon such offenders as are before mentioned, in respect that higher penalties are in stead thereof herein intended and designed, shall stand from henceforth repealed, and be of no further effect. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all former Licences granted by Authority of both or either House of Parliament to any person or persons, for printing any Diurnal, News of Occurrences, shall be from henceforth void and of no further effect, And that no Book, pamphlet, sheet or sheets of News or Occurrences whatsoever, shall henceforth be printed, bound, stitched or put to sale by any person or persons whatsoever, unleas the same be first approved of and Licensed under the hand of the Clerk of the Parliament, or of such person as shall be authorized by the Council of State for the time being; or (for so much as may concern the Affairs of the Army) under the hand of the Secretary of the Army for the time being, the same to be entered in their several Registers, to be by them kept for that purpose, and all in the Register-Book of the Company of Stationers, according to ancient custom; and the Printer thereof to put his hand thereto. Obventions, and other such duties, according to the Law of the said Realm; to which they are the more encouraged, both because there is not now any such compulsory means for recovery of them by any Ecclesiastical proceedings, as heretofore hath been; and also for that by reason of the present Troubles there cannot be had speedy remedy for them in the Temporal Courts, although they remain still due, and of right payable, as in former times. Be it therefore Declared and Ordered by the Lords and Commons in Parliament Assembled, That every person and persons whatsoever within the said Realm and Dominion, shall fully, truly and effectually set out, yield and pay respectively, all and singular Tythes, Offerings, Oblations, Obventions, Rates for Tythes, and all other Duties commonly known by the name of Tythes, and all Arrears of them respectively, to all and every the respective Owners, Proprietors, Impropriators and Possessors, as well Lay as Ecclesiastical respectively, their Executors and Administrators of Parsonages, Vicarages or Rectories, either Impropriate, or Presentative, or Donative, and of Vicarages, and of portions of Tythes respectively within the said Realm and Dominion, according to the Law, Custom, Prescription, Compotition or Contract respectively, by which they or any of them ought to have been set out, yielded and paid at the beginning of this present Parliament or two years before; and in all and every case where any person or persons hath at any time since the beginning of this present Parliament or two years before, subtracted, withdrawn or failed in due payment of, or hereafter at any time said Summons being made as aforesaid, and proved before the said Justices by Oath, which said Justices hereby shall have power to minister the same, to hear and determine the said Complaint, by sending for, and examining Witnesses upon Oath, which said Oath the said either side, and thereupon shall in writing under their Hands and Seal adjudge the case, and give reasonable Costs and Damages to either party, as in their judgement they shall think fit.

aforesaid, That if any person or persons shall refuse to pay any such Tythes or Sums of Money

And in case no sufficient Distress can be found, that then the said Justices of Peace, or any other Justices of Peace of the same County as aforesaid, shall and may commit all and every such person and persons so refusing, to the next common Goal of the said county, there to remain in safe custody without Bail or Mainprize, until he or they respectively shall make full satisfaction according to the said Judgment.

Provided always, and it is further ordained by the Authority aforesaid, That if any person or persons shall think him or themselves unjustly dealt with by or in any such Judgment as aforesaid, then he or they respectively shall and may thereof complain to the High Court of Chancery, where the Cause between the Parties shall be again heard and determined, which Court shall hereby have full power and authority to to summon the parties, and to hear and determine the same, and to suspend Execution as the same Court shall see cause; and to give final Judgment therein with reasonable costs to the party or parties grieved by any such complaint brought before them.

An Additional Ordinance for the True Payment of Tythes and other Duties.

Whereas some doubts have been raised, whether Ministers put into Livings and Sequestrations by Ordinance of both Houses of Parliament, or Committees thereto Authorized by them, be compizd within the Ordinance of the Eighth of November One thousand Six hundred forty four; En-
