I have completed the above questionnaire as set forth above. I certify that, in accordance to my knowledge and experience, the answers provided are true and correct. My professional background is that I am academically educated and hold a degree as a Ph. D., and am currently employed as a professor by Golden West College; I am certified as being professionally competent in the areas of proper English, from an American perspective, and in correct grammar within the same said language area.

In my applying my answers to the above questionnaire, I was given no information as to what the said questionnaire was to be used for before I was called upon to sign here below, nor what its purpose was either in specific or overall; my responses were therefore provided in good and honest faith, and were not meant to mislead any one for any reason.

By my verified signature below, my responses, as answers to the terms presented to me, are certified to be the correct responses so far as my profession itself, as stated above, would hold such answers to be. I have been offered no money for my professional discernment of the above grammar, as expressly provided by me, to be rendered other than what I have so rendered it - discernment of each answer - specifically to be, and as such my answers above are non-reversible.
